

Bryant Confucius Classroom Connection: Welcoming Visitors from China!

<http://china.bryant.edu/confucius-institute/confucius-classrooms/>

April 2014

Chinese Teachers from Beijing No. 35 School visit

Smithfield High School, Lincoln
High School &
North Attleboro
High School

February 2014

Teachers from China's Beijing No. 35 School Visit- Bryant University welcomed a group of teachers from China the last two weeks of February. Smithfield High School, Lincoln High School, and North Attleboro High School had the opportunity to host them for a few days to observe American teaching in classrooms as part of their training in the United States. They also attended workshops and presentations by faculty and staff at Bryant on American education and college admission.

English Teachers from the Fujian Province in China

Bryant University and the Confucius Classroom at Westerly

English Teachers from China's Fujian Province visit- Bryant University and Westerly High School welcomed a group of teachers from China who participated in a professional development exchange program. They were in the New England region from February to April, first staying with host families from Westerly for three weeks and then staying at Bryant University for the remainder of the stay. They were observing and learning about student-centered instruction, the teaching of literature, and American culture. They all learned so much from their experiences!

English Teachers
from the Fujian
Province in China

Visit with the Rhode Island
Commissioner of Education,
Deborah Gist

English Teachers
from the Fujian
Province in China

Visit Medway
Middle School and Coyle & Cassidy
High School

Medway, MA Taunton, MA

February 2014
March 2014

More information on our website!

English Teachers from Fujian visit Medway Middle School and Coyle & Cassidy High School – Medway Middle School and Coyle & Cassidy High School, a private Catholic School that is home to two of the newest Bryant University Confucius Institute affiliated Confucius Classrooms, welcomed teachers from China into their schools in order to give them a more diverse view of American culture and education. The teachers were able to sit in on multiple classes and attend CCHS's Spring Sports Rally.

