Let’s celebrate the first issue of the Bryant Confucius Classrooms Connection with recent updates and upcoming events!

2012 Chinese New Year Celebration at Bryant University -
We would like to thank the following schools for their hard work and preparation for participation in this spectacular celebration:
- Lincoln High School (Confucius Classroom and Asian Art Class)
- North Attleboro High School (Confucius Classroom)
- Smithfield High School (Choir)
- Southern Rhode Island Collaborative Confucius Classroom at Westerly
This year we had very special guests in attendance, including Superintendent of Lincoln Public Schools, Ms. Georgia Fortunato, Principal of Lincoln High School, Mr. Kevin McNamara, Principal of Smithfield High School, Mr. Daniel Kelley, Foreign Language Department Head, Ms. Sarah Steverman, and Director of the Tower Street Community Center, Ms. Joan Serra.

2012 Chinese New Year Celebration at North Attleboro High School –

2012 Martial Arts Demonstration at William Winsor Elementary School –
Two visiting students from the China University of Geosciences, trained in the art of kung fu, visited the William Winsor Elementary School and gave demonstrations to all of the students, who eagerly participated.

2012 China Week- April 2nd-5th at Bryant University-
Programs include: Short Films: “Follow Me” to China on April 2nd in Janikies and “From Mao to the Met” with Hao Jiang Tian, a one-man live show on April 5th in Janikies Theatre.